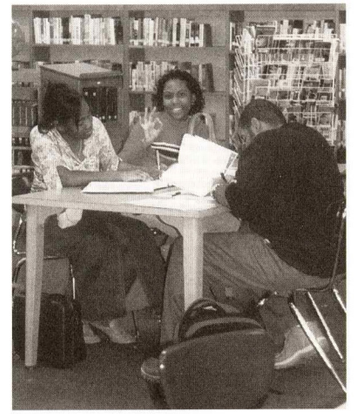
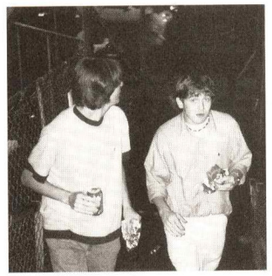
Once upon a time, there was a little high school with big hopes. It wasn't as fancy as some, it wasn't in the best town, but the students did a lot with the little they had.

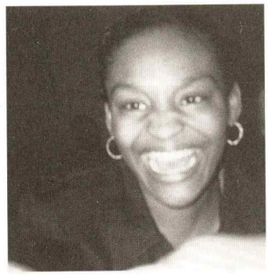


Welcome to Moss Point High School, home of the Tigers. Inside these walls, there are inseparable friends, a dedicated, outstanding faculty, and seniors who have to leave behind people they have known all their lives in a matter of months. Bells are ringing, resulting in detentions, students are butting in line, trying to get to those famous chicken nuggets, and someone in class is daydreaming about strolling across that football field in their cap and gown.

Here at "MPH," values and confidence are instilled, and students are constantly encouraged to rise above the expectations. But perhaps the most important of all is to have a fun, memorable learning experience, as the following pages of the GROWLER will show.

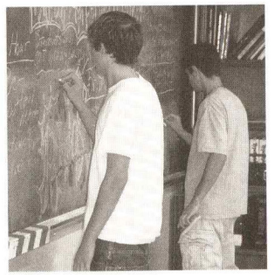
Chapter 1: The life of a TIGER

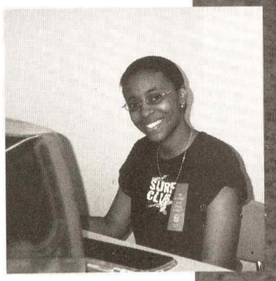


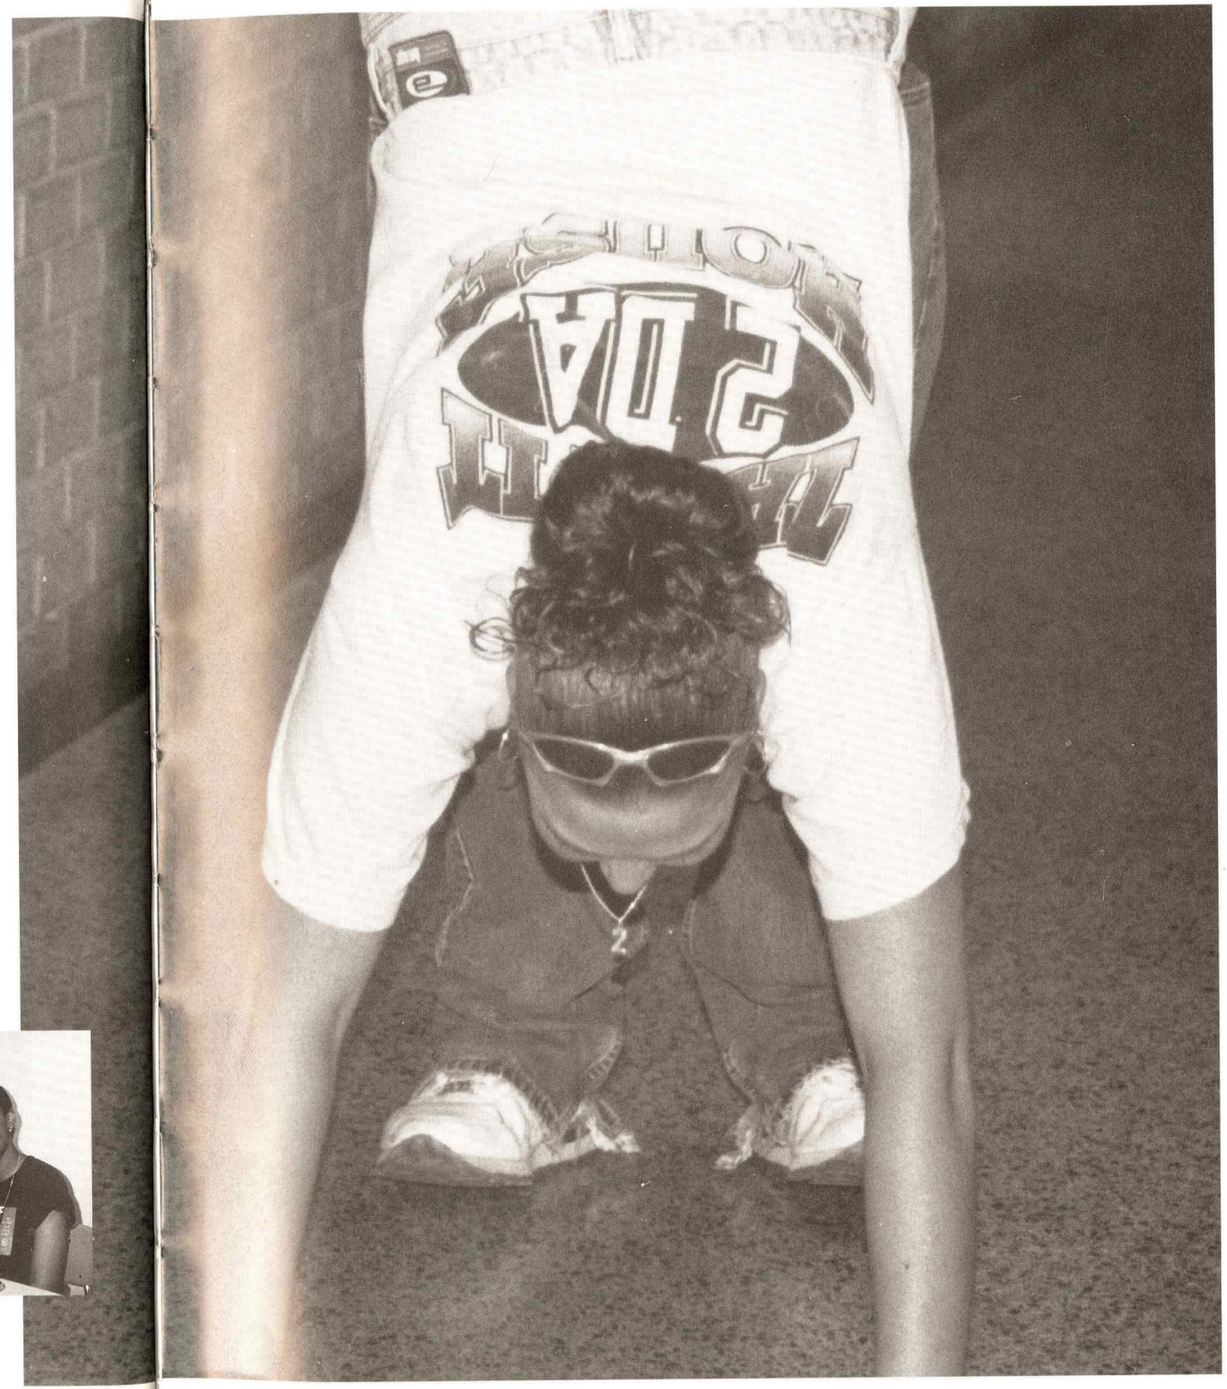


"By living for today, you inadvertently prepare for tomorrow. By living for tomorrow, you sometimes forget to live for today."

--- Naomi A.





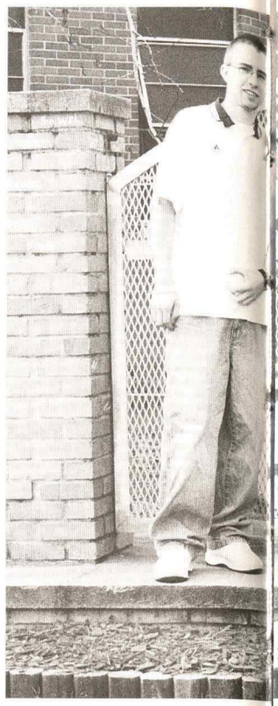


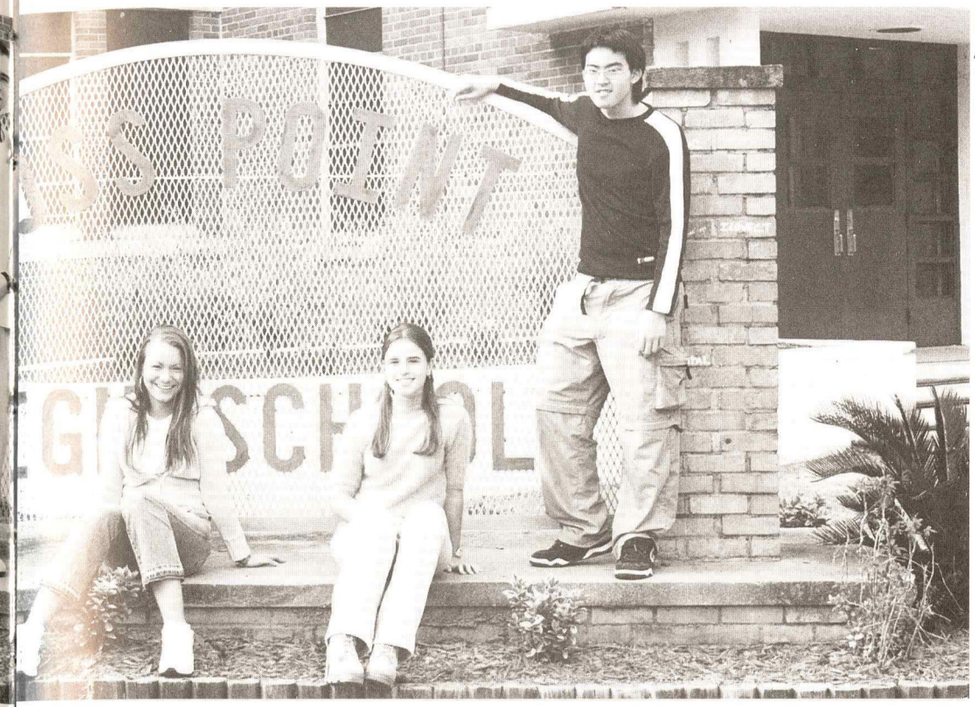
INVASION

of the

Exchange Students

During the 2002-2003 school year, several students from around the world attended Moss Point High. They were exposed to American and "Moss Pointian" customs, having a fun learning experience in the process. Here's what some of them had to say.





INTERNATIONAL SCHOLARS (left)- l-r: Alexander Lucas, Amelie Wernet, Flavia Ferreira, and Piti Tiyingdee

Alexander Lucas, 12th

Age: 17
City: Berlin
Country: Germany
High School: Georg-Christoph-Lichtenberg-Gymnasium

Q: How did you learn about the Exchange Student Program?

A: I found out about the Exchange Student Program from other students from my high school and I looked up information on the Internet.

Q: Do you like Moss Point High?

A: I really enjoy Moss Point High School, because of the school spirit, the opportunity to do sports, because at home you have to pay money to play sports, and the teachers here are really nice and helpful.

Q: What do you dislike?

A: I dislike the bathrooms. They have no doors, don't smell good, and no soap and towels to clean your hands with.

Amelie Wernet, 12th

Age: 17
City: Berlin
Country: Germany
High School: Rheingau-Gymnasium

Q: What were your expectations when you signed up to be a foreign exchanged student?

A: Experiences, learn about another culture, and learn English better.

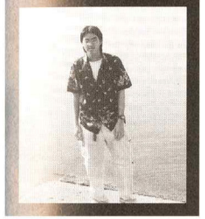
Q: Did you have any English classes?

A: Yes, from 5th grade until now.

Q: Do you get homesick?

A: Not really, but sometimes I think it would be cool to be home.

Piti Tiyingdee, 10th



Age: 16
Hometown: Bangkok
City: Thailand
High School: Triamudomsukda Pattanakarn

Q: How did you find out about the Exchange Student Program?

A: My parents told me four days before I had to take the test.

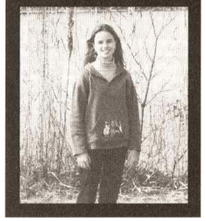
Q: Would you consider coming back to the United States to attend college?

A: Yes, I would like to come back to attend college here.

Q: Did you play any sports at your old school?

A: Yes, I played soccer about four times a week, but it is really difficult to join my school's team. You have to be really good.

Flavia Ferreira, 11th



Age: 16
City: Sao Paulo
Country: Brazil
High School: Colegio Batista Brasileiro

Q: How is your old school and Moss Point similar and how are they different?

A: They both teach you something new everyday. In Brazil we can't choose our classes, and here you can.

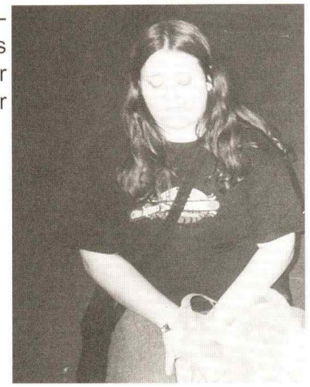
Q: How many classes did you have and how long were they at your old school?

A: We had six classes and they were fifty minutes long.

Q: What were the school days?

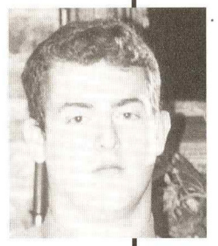
A: They were from January till the end of November. We are out of school in July, because it is the coldest part of the year there.

THIS SUCKS (right)- Kacey Hickam sulks on the floor, hoping for brighter days after Moss Point.



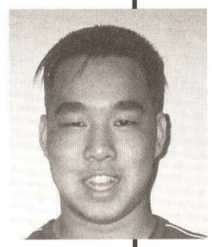
"All I do is eat, sleep, and babysit. Hopefully college will be a more exciting experience."

-Nikenya Trotter



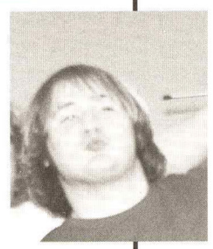
"When I'm really bored, I go up to strangers and do the "Xena Warrior Princess" war call. The look on their faces gives me a thrill. "

-Drew Clardy



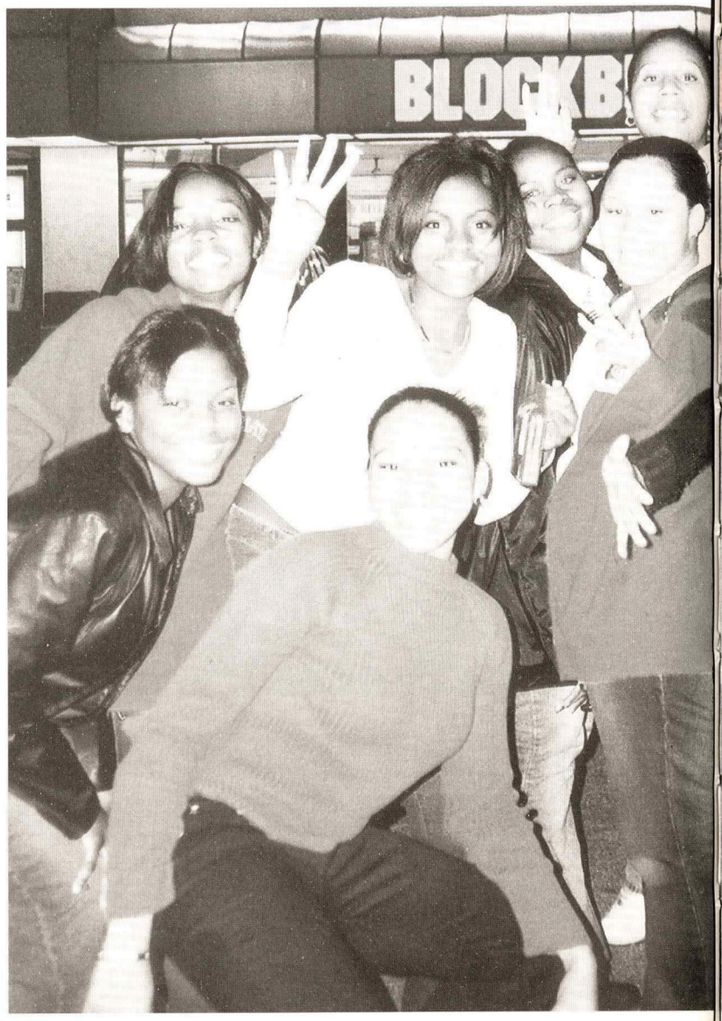
"I use highlighters to draw on my room wall and turn my black light on. I turn my music on and think of my dream car, a Nissan Skyliner R34."

-Paul Nguyen

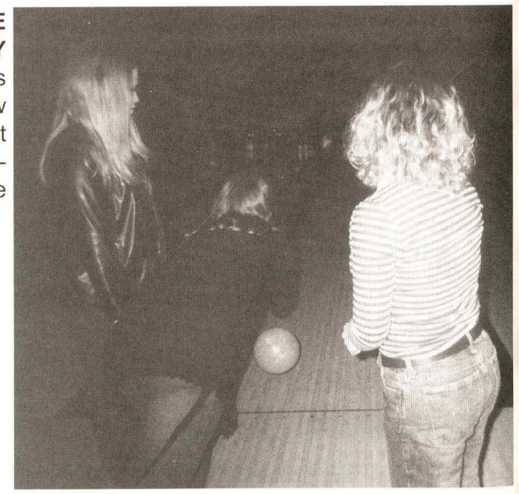


"One day Brandon Lennep & I went to the grocery store with invisible fishing line to trip people for laughs."

-Nick Phillips



BOWLING THE TIME AWAY (right)- Bowling is also one of the few local activities that Moss Point students participate in.



BOREDOM in Moss Point

When you ask little kids what they do for fun, and they reply "catching squirrels" and "rolling down hills," you think nothing of it. Ask a teenager and get the same response though, then you know you're in Moss Point: a place where exciting things to do include checking out a movie and cow tipping. Most high school students don't have very much money to spend, so they have to find cheap ways to have fun. This, combined with the fact that there really is nothing obvious to do here, makes for a pretty boring place. It is this lack of money and "boringness," though, that forces us to come up with creative and interesting forms of entertainment.

MPHS students have done everything from talking to themselves in mirrors, throwing balloons filled with shaving cream and water out of the car window at the passers-by. Some people found it entertaining to hop in a shopping cart and roll themselves into a curb, while others hang out at the local mall--Wal-Mart. Moss Point students know simple, yet cheap ways to have an awesome time.

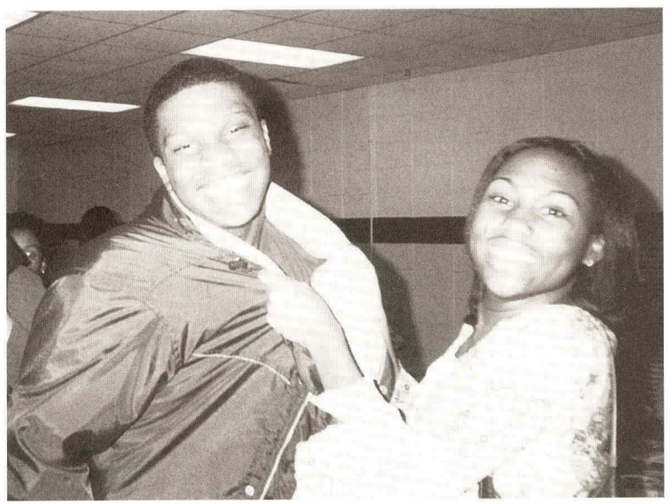
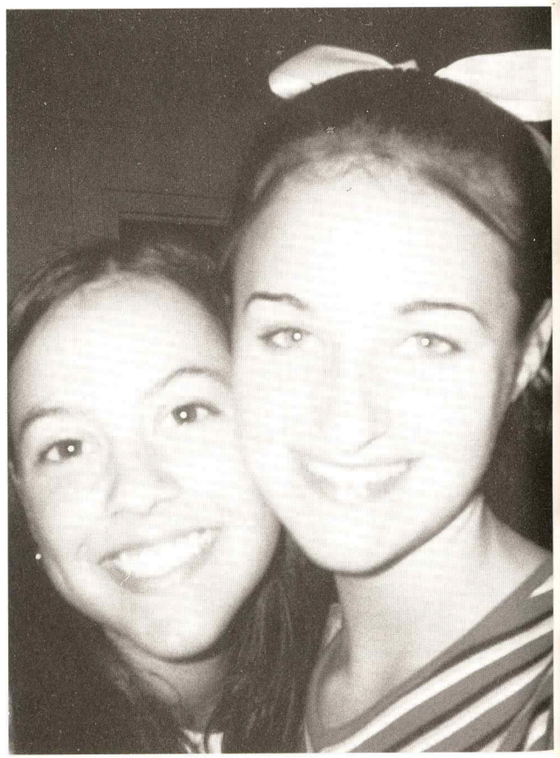
FEARSOME FOUR (left)- Siara Smith, Danielle DeShields, Carmen Torres, and Christine Downs have been best friends since seventh grade.



HURTING THE ONES WE LOVE (above)- Best friends J.J. McCorvey and Nikenya Trotter caught having one of their usual fights.



KEEPING IT IN THE FAMILY (right)- Not only are Ashlee Richardson and Rachel Carroll best friends, but also first cousins.

Unbreakable BONDS

STUDENTS THAT APPRECIATE THE VALUE OF FRIENDSHIP

True friendship...a treasure truly hard to find. At Moss Point High, best friends can be seen everywhere; eating lunch together, cheering at a basketball game, or rushing to school to avoid that tardy. They hang out, tune each other out, and sometimes even bail each other out. Needless to say, it takes a lot to uphold a long-lasting friendship. Some are dissipated by envy, grudges, and outside influences, but it displays true love and loyalty to still have that unbreakable bond in the end.

THE THREE PIMPS (above)- Lorenzo King, Curtis Earnest, and Tristen Barnes having a "guys' night out."

A fun-filled homecoming week climaxed with an exciting game on Friday night against the Long Beach Bearcats. It started with students dressed in their favorite pj's on Monday; Tuesday was tacky day; Wednesday was dress up day; Thursday was Aloha day; Friday was blue/gray/white day. Thursday night featured a big bond fire and pep rally. Friday afternoon, Moss Point fans enjoyed 50 entries in the traditional homecoming parade. During half-time of the game, the Queen and her court were presented to the huge crowd of Tiger fans. The Tigers emerged victorious, with the game ending 44-14.

Cheating 101

Some Students Take Advantage of Others

The black ink rests on the sole of her tennis shoe like old gum. She keeps her shoe flat on the floor and glances at it casually. She doesn't want anyone to catch on...can't afford it. A. D. E. C. C. B. A. C. She's surprised she was able to fit all of them there and that she hadn't worn them off.

"Cheating goes on in every class...it makes me really angry when I see my class rank compared with ranks of people I know are getting answers from friends," a senior girl said.

She finished and turns it in, careful to keep her foot down on the floor. She'll get an A on this test. And the next day. And the next.

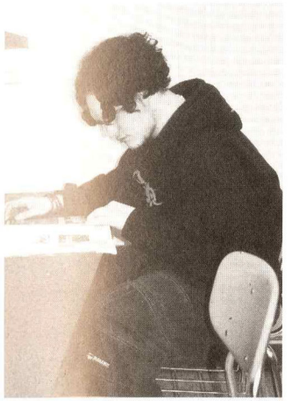
"Cheating is incredibly easy to get away with... nobody notices most of the time," a junior boy said.

Individual Expressions

BRAID MY HAIR (right)- Lorenzo King, Brian McDougle, and Curtis Earnest show off their various braid styles.

AFRICAN QUEEN (below)- With her cockleshell necklace and corn-rowed hair, Anna McCorvey honors her African heritage.

GOING GOTHIC (below)- While others choose preppy or sporty, Alan Bowker goes goth with black clothes and curly locks.



SPIKES! (below)- Throw in some water and mousse, and BAM! You've got Hellraiser (better known as James Boerckel).

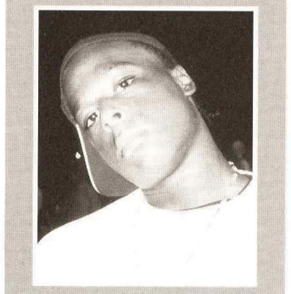
What are this year's most popular phrases?



"What up Big Baby!"

Motor Madness

One of the proudest moments of any high school student's life is when they finally earn their driver's license. It not only signifies the beginning of their long road to adulthood, but also the new-found freedom of the open road.

Many students take a lot of pride in the vehicles they drive. It doesn't matter if it is homemade, stripped, or tricked-out, its always someone's pride and joy. And for some people, being proud is an understatement. Whether to attract females (or males), to achieve status, or to just make it look better, Moss Point High School students spend numerous hours and outrageous amounts of money on their vehicles.

The diversity in the student parking lot cannot be ignored. It reflects the ever-changing styles of our student body. With colors ranging from mellow yellow to the classic black. About the only constant thing we have in common with all the cars is the need to wash them.

Teen Love

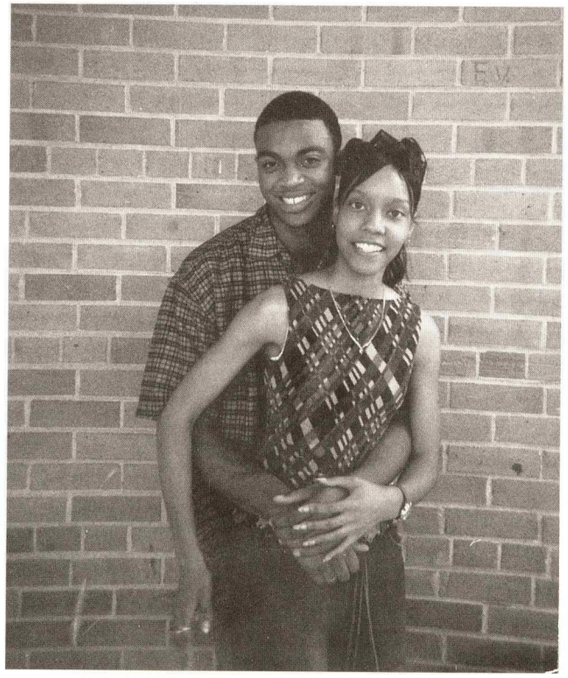
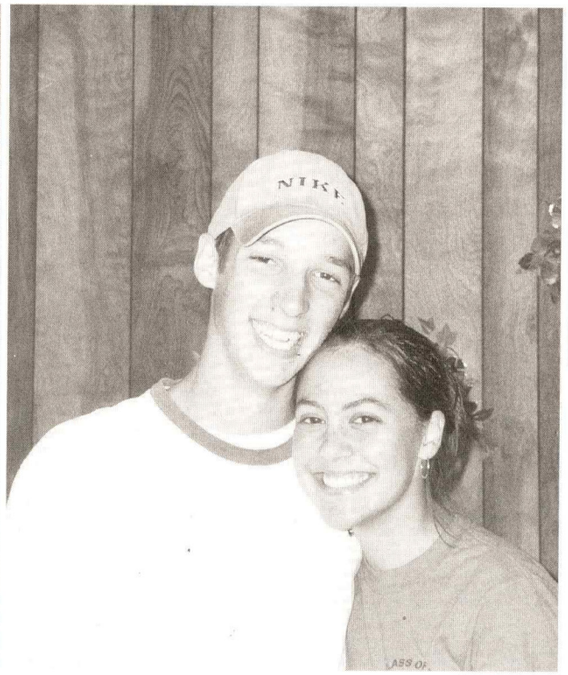
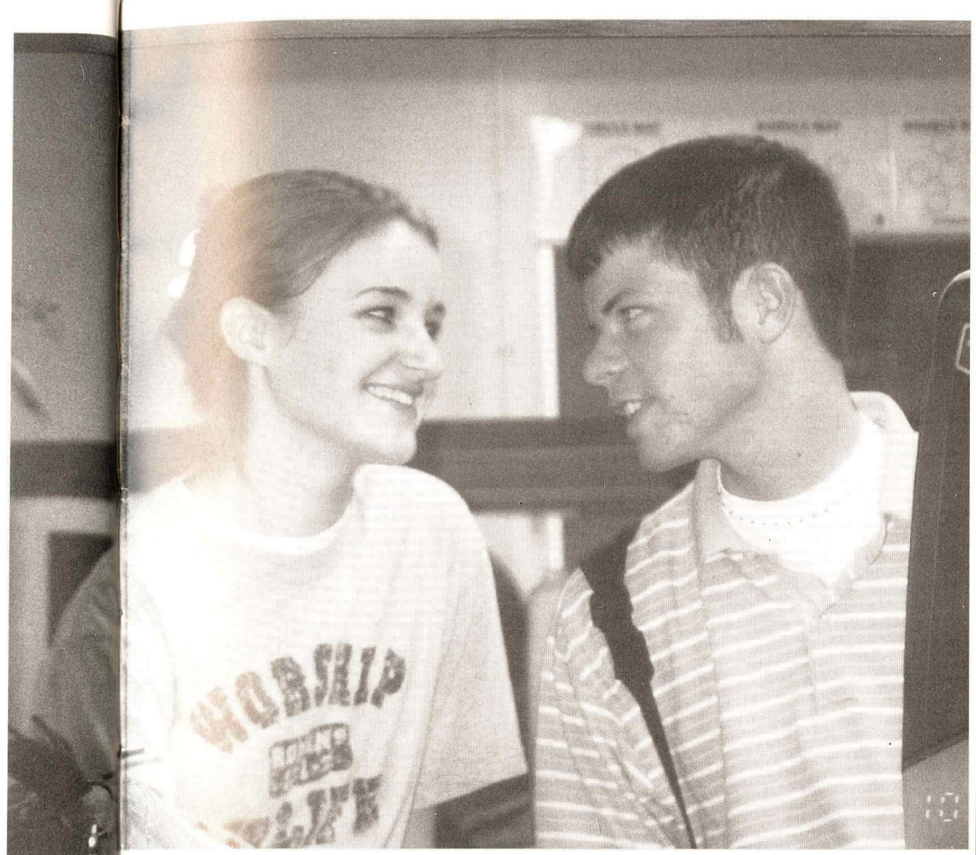
To experience true love is to have one of the greatest feelings in life, and few are lucky enough to find it at a young age. Some don't find it until their thirties, fifties, and sometimes even seventies. But with that love comes responsibilities, which some students seem to disregard at times. However, there are plenty of up-sides to dating.

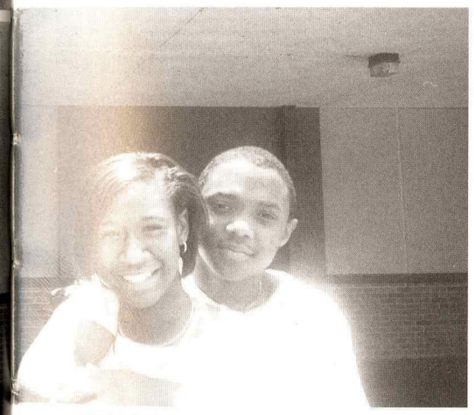
"Dating is fun activity that makes guys completely broke," senior John Renfroe says. "Whether it be at Singing River Mall or the 24-hour Wal-Mart, it's always 'baby buy me this' and 'baby buy me that.' But in the end, it's worth it." On the other hand, dating can have a sentimental side. "It's the little things that count, like staying up to watch the sunrise, having your boyfriend to come see you at work, or bringing you flowers," says senior Rachel Carroll.

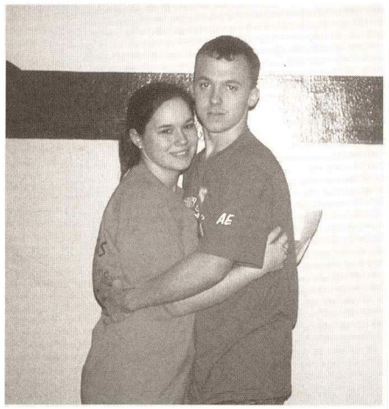


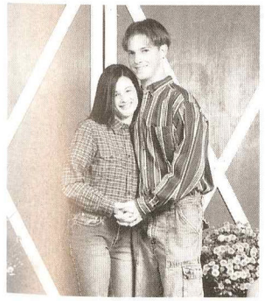


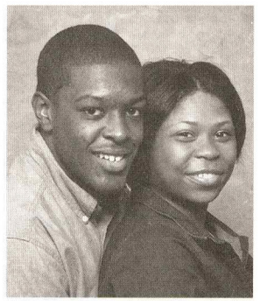


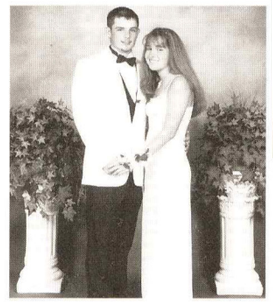
9 MONTHS STRONG (left)- Rachel Carroll and John Renfroe have been going out since August 21.











top 10 cheesiest pick up lines

1. "You must be a parking ticket because you have fine written all over you."

2. "If you were a booger, I'd pick you first.

3. "Are you tired, because you've been running through my mind all day."

4. "I lost my number...can I have yours?"

5. "I say we rearrange the alphabet and put 'u' and 'i' together."

6. "Girl are you from Tennesee, because you're the only 10 I see."

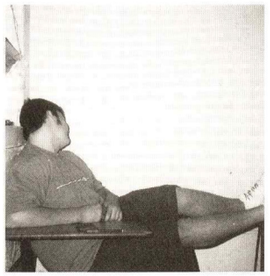
7. "Did it hurt when you fell from heaven?"

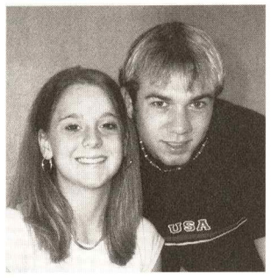
8. "Is your dad a jewel thief, becasue he stole the twinkle in the stars and put it in your eyes."

9. "Looking at you proves that milk DOES do a body good."

10. "Can I borrow thirty-five cents, because I promised my mom that I would call her when I found the woman of my dreams."

Chapter 2: Familiar Faces





" The human heart is full of dreams
Full of hope
Full of hate
Full of love
Full of fate
Full of fear
Of what we can't create
If you think you never will...then you won't
Think of what you can, and what you wish to overcome.
Use the power of your heart, every ounce, every part
Never give up
Hold onto your dream
It must come true
For it means absolutely everything to you!
The harder you wish and the more you believe
The more you will overcome and the more you will achieve."

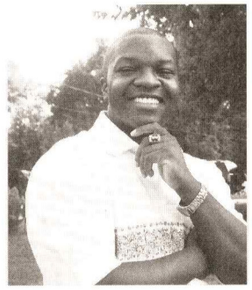
Boys' State Governor E.J. Johnson



Senior E.J. Johnson was elected governor of the 2002 session of American Legion Boys' State held in Cleveland, MS at Delta State University. Boys' State is designed to take the best and brightest young men and develop the leadership skills that they already possess. Johnson was the first student from Moss Point High School and the third African-American to be given this honor.

While at Boys' State, E.J. was given the opportunity to meet great Mississippi leaders such as Ronnie Musgrove, Amy Tuck and Mike Moore. As a result of his great leadership during his term as governor, E.J. was selected to attend Boys' Nation in Washington, D.C. during the summer before his senior year where he met leaders like President Bush, Thad Cochran and Trent Lott.

"I did not know anything about Boys' State when I signed up, but when I went through it, I learned a lot about politics and development of leadership skills. I also learned how powerful a group and its voice could be," E.J. states. He definitely made his school proud.

Dear Students,

It has been a pleasure knowing and working with you during your high school years. You are, of course, the hope of this country's future, and I'm confident you will be productive citizens.

As you embark upon future endeavors remember--most of life is made up of ordinary days. It's what you do with those ordinary days that determine the number and intensity of your big moments. My very best wishes for a successful future to each of you.

Dr. Jane McCoy, Director of Career and Technical Education

Auto Mechanics

This two-year program includes a study of the basic theory, estimating damage, cost of repairs, and training in the use of hand tools and others equipment necessary for the panel installation, door and panel alignment, and repair and painting of damaged cars.

UTILIZING TECHNOLOGY- BCT students are constantly using computers to learn and discover new things.

BCT

This course will benefit both college and prep and tech students who want computer knowledge in preparation for college, for use in a business career, or for personal use. BCT I is designed to develop skills in using the computer to produce needed documents, including reports, research papers, graphic designs, and financial data. Students will learn to use Word Perfect 6.0 for windows, a program that allows you to do word processing, desktop publishing and slide presentations. Internet access is available for students to connect to the Information Superhighway!

Carpentry

A study of shop safety, the use of hand tools, power tools and machines, blueprint reading, cabinet making, and house construction is covered in Carpentry I and II. This class is designed for those who plan to be carpenters upon graduation from high school.

TOOLS, TOOLS, TOOLS (above)- Students in carpentry are required to learn how to use different types of tools to work on projects.

Child Care

A two year course designed to give students basic information on prenatal care, growth and development of children and techniques for teaching and guiding children, and on-site work experience.

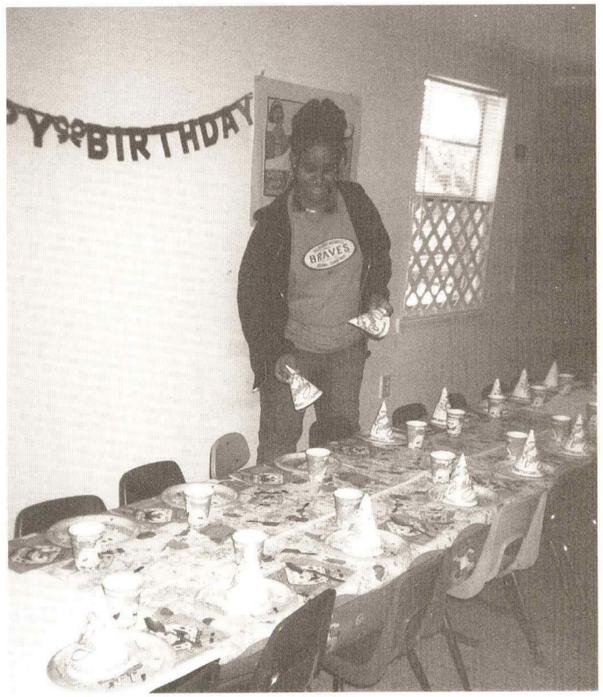
MAY I TAKE A MESSAGE? (left)- Jillian Harris reigns as the telephone queen on her job as secretary.

DOING THE DIRTY WORK (below)- Some students aren't as fortunate to have jobs in nice, air-conditioned offices.

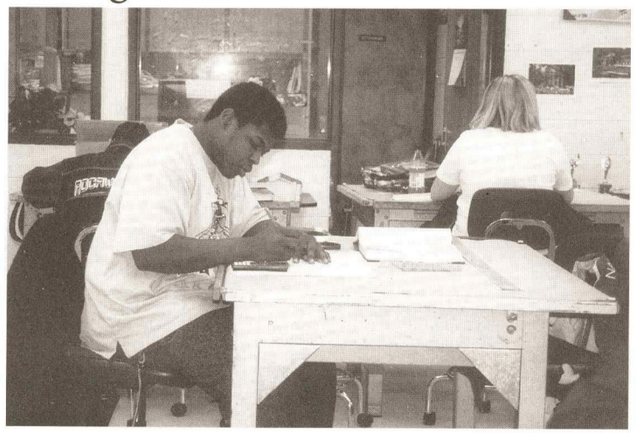
Co-op

Mississippi Cooperative Education (MCE) is a two-year secondary training program designed for 11th and 12th grade students that combines work-readiness preparation and related occupational classroom instruction, along with worksite training related to a student's occupational program or clearly defined occupational objective. The students enrolled in MCE are required to work a minimum of 15 hours per week and attend cooperative education classes in order to receive 2 1/2 Carnegie units.

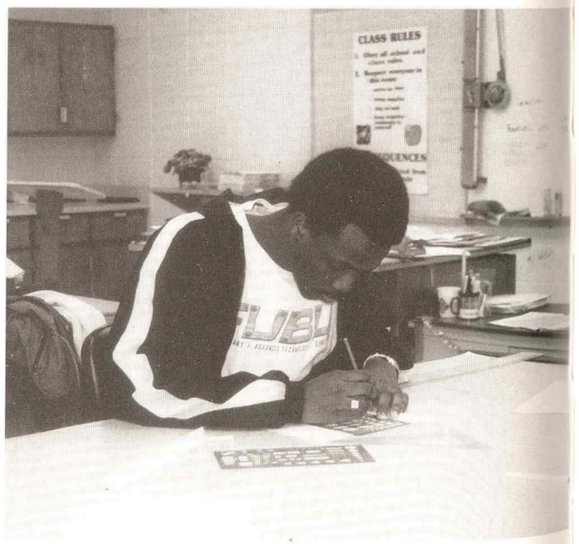


Drafting

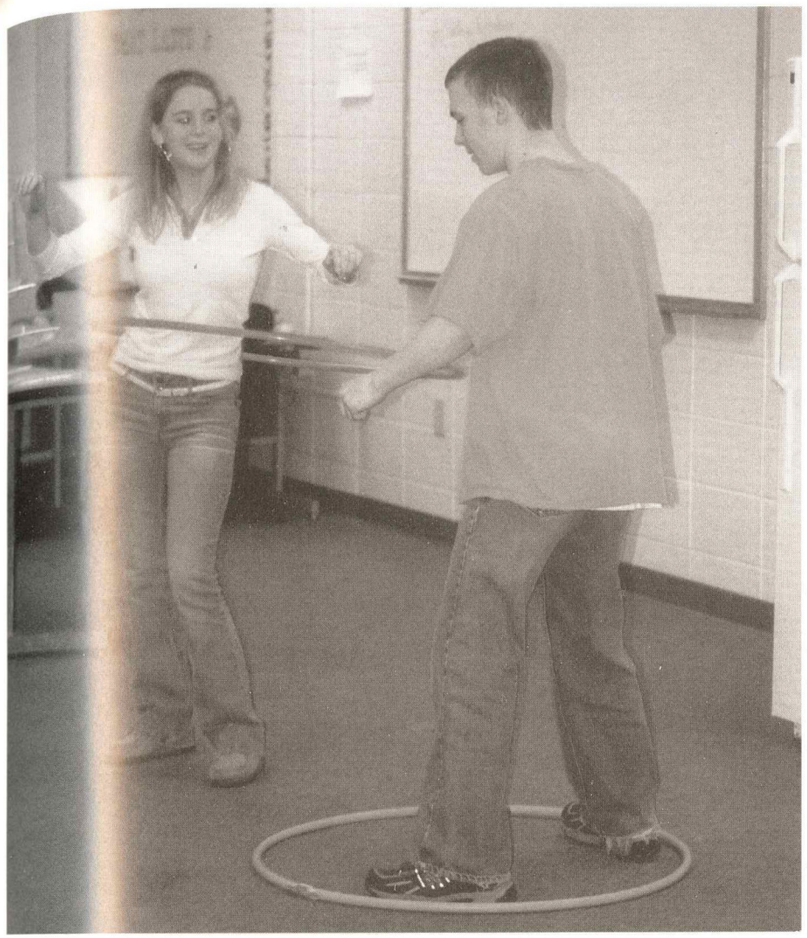
This two year program includes a study of basic skills and knowledge required of a draftsperson. Instruction includes geometric construction, pictorial drawings, multiview projection working, and computer aided drafting in the machine and architectural drafting fields.



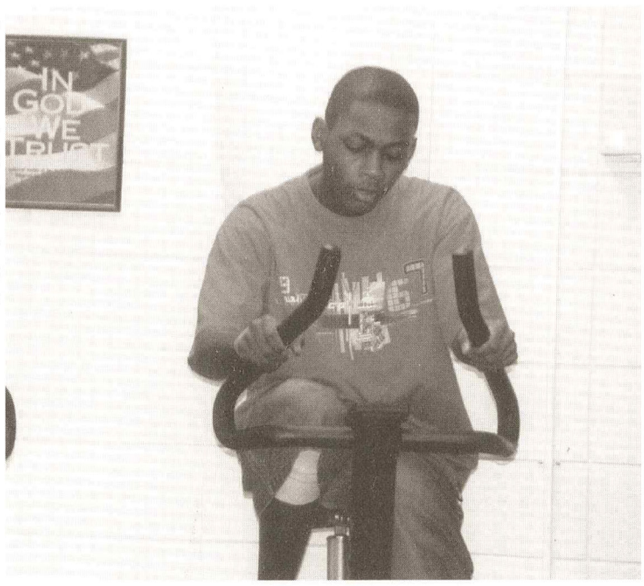
DON'T MESS UP...(above)- Mrs.Welch watches closely to make sure Ebony Gladney doesn't make a mistake.



DRAFTING AIN'T EASY (right)- Most of the time, drafting students have to use stencils to make their shapes and lines perfect.



WORKIN' UP A SWEAT- Although working out can be fun, as Callie Williams shows (above), the expression on Peter Glaude's face (right) shows that it's also tiring.

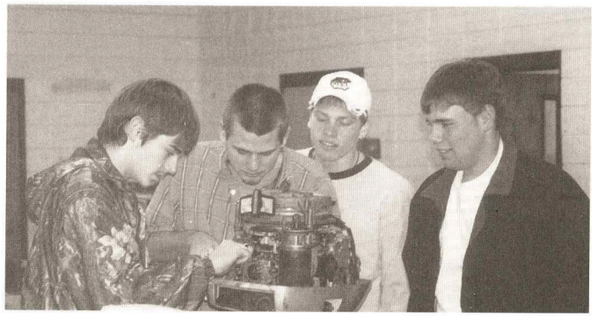


Nutrition & Wellness

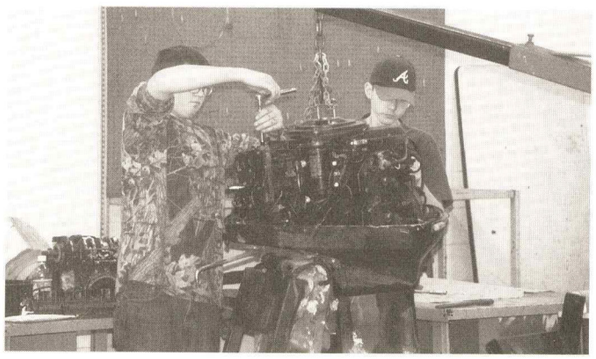
A course that develops skills related to the importance of proper nutrition and the concept of overall wellness in modern life. It includes instruction in basic principles of nutrition, the impact of diet on well-being, and food and behavior management for a healthy lifestyle. During the course, students are exposed to a variety of exercise-related activities and are expected to participate fully in all activities. Additionally, throughout the term, students learn how to prepare foods that emphasize a healthy lifestyle.

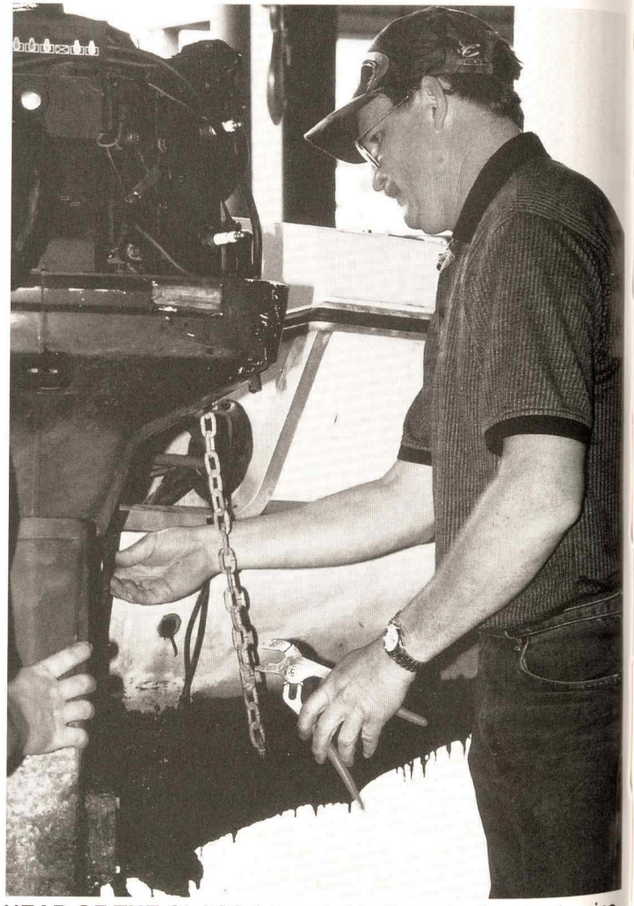
Marine Engine Mechanics

Marine Mechanics is a study of basic skills in the maintence of two-cycle outboard marine engineers. Training includes theory of operation; general maintenance and servicing of electrical systems, fuel systems, power heads, and lower units; and minor tune-ups and major overhauls.



WORKING TOGETHER- In Marine Mechanics, students often have to partner up to get the job done efficiently. Not only do they learn, but having fun is also a part of the daily routine.





HEAD OF THE CLASS (above)- Mr. Bounds, the mechanics instructor, shows another student how to fasten a motor to a boat.

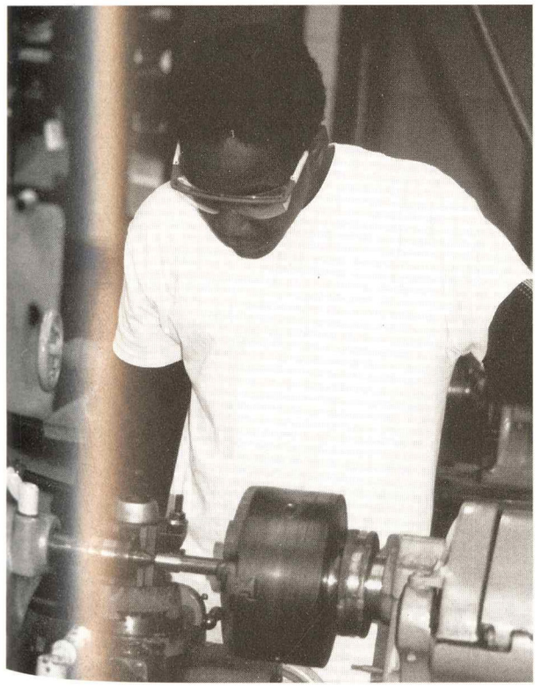
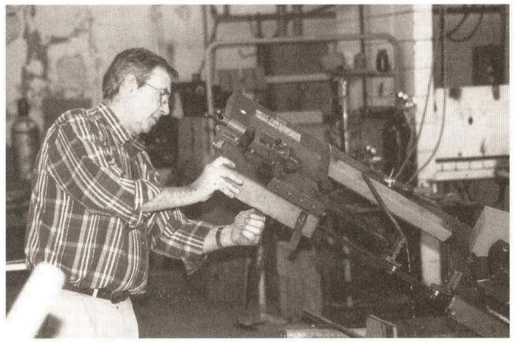
Metal Trades

A two year program that includes a study of basic skills in sheetmetal, machine shop, welding use of machines, tools and materials, blueprint reading, precision measuring, shop calculations, and safety.





IT WORKED THE OTHER DAY...(left)- Mr. Crivea, metal trades teacher, gets frustrated with his machinery sometimes.

Tiger Tales

This culinary arts class commonly known as Tiger Tales is a ProStart program under the guidance of The National Restaurant Associations Educational Foundation. The ProStart curriculum is a two-year program designed to teach high school students the management skills needed for a career in the restaurant industry.

As part of the program students are encouraged to work 400 hours in paid internships where industry managers mentor them. This internship qualifies the students to take the National Certification Exam and allows the students who pass to be eligible for thousands of dollars in scholarships.

The students gain additional hands-on experience by operating a cafe, Tiger Tales, on their campus. The students select the menu, submit bids to vendors, price the menu items to be cost recovery, accept and reject stock, prepare menu items, wait tables, and provide all clean and sanitation tasks. Each class has a manager and crew chefs who help grade employees and make job promotion recommendations.

The class makes a comprehensive effort to advance and promote the restaurant industry's role in the economy, provide career opportunities and encourage community involvement.

HAVIN' FUN (right)-Tiger Tales have fun out of the kitchen, too; they do parades and even classroom projects.

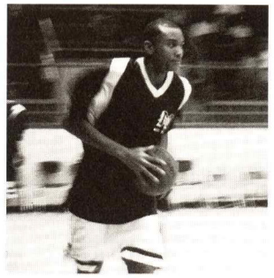
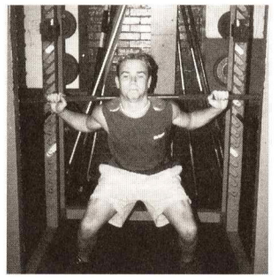
Chapter 4: Sports





"Winners don't blame fate for their failures
Nor luck for their successes.
They know that a goal is only as worthy
As the effort that's required to achieve it."

Guess Who's #1 Again?

It's a three-peat for the Lady Tigers, as they steal the state championship once again. Famed for their outstanding records, the Moss Point softball team has proved that there IS such a thing as "girl power."

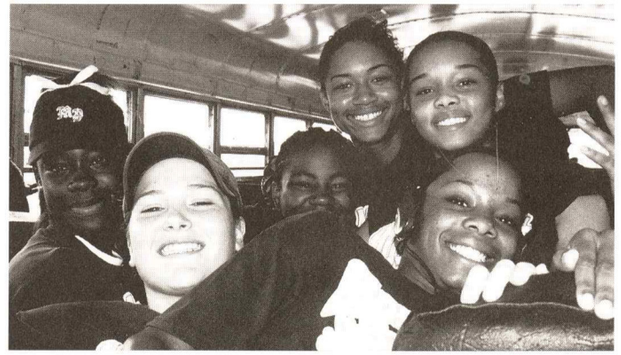
Why do you like this sport so much? Were you always so good?

"I have been playing my whole life. As the years past I have gotten better and better."
-Latrice Bivens

"I like softball because you have to use both your mental and physical abilities. I have been very blessed to have this skill my entire life."
-Siara Smith

"I like this sport because it is challenging. I was always good at softball."
-LaDrena Larry

LETTING THE GOOD TIMES ROLL (right)- While on the road, the Lady Tigers display the fun they have on their many trips. "On our bus trips, the main thing we did was prepare mentally and physically for the game, which included plenty of sleep," Siara Smith said.



A SPECIAL MOMENT (below)- Shayla Dickerson shares a warm moment with "Momma Lewis," who acts as team mother (and actual mother of head coach Brenda Lewis).

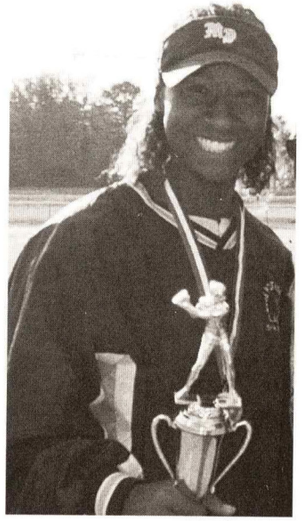
YES, ANOTHER ONE! (below)- Siara shines again with the state trophy in her grasp.



AWWW, YOU GUYS! (below)- Stephanie shyly accepts her award as the softball team is honored for their achievements.

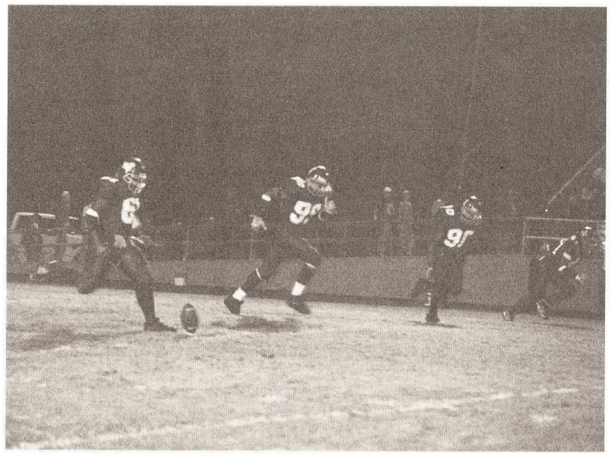
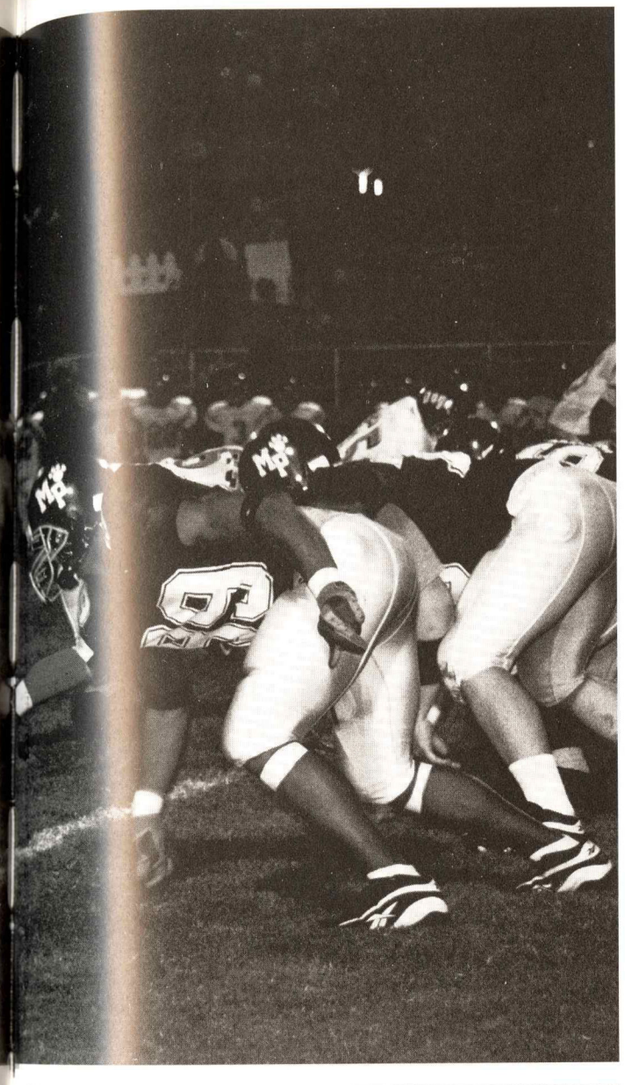
A WAY OUT (right)-Senior Tyrone Pickens attempts to find a clear path to the end zone.

FOOTING IT (below)- The Tigers' primary punter Marcus Poole prepares to do what he does best.





GO BIG BLUE!

After years of success, the Tigers learn that there is more to football than just winning.

With a history of athletic success to follow up, the 2002 football team found a way to achieve at least a fraction of their ambitions.

There were many ups and downs this year; moments of elation and gloom. The Tigers were challenged in many ways, but with the support of loyal fans, they kept their heads and spirits up.

The Tigers finished the season with a 7-5 record, but prevailed over the Pascagoula Panthers, gaining the crown of District Champions in the process. Though the goal of winning the state title was unfulfilled, the team still played their hearts out, showing the opponents what true perseverance is.

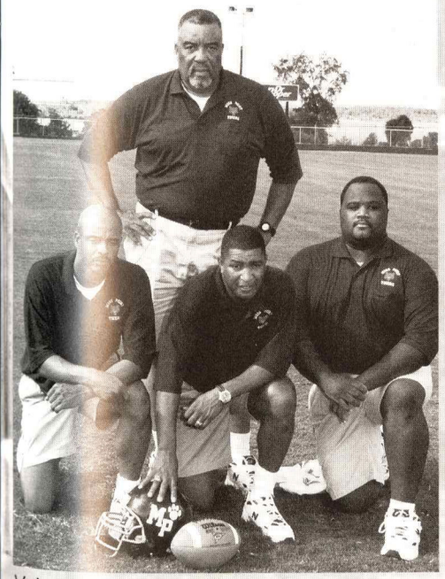
Spirit and dedication prevails in the 2002 football season!



Volunteer Coaches: (l-r) Darrell Whitehead, Willie Chestang, Vincent Norvell, Eugene Mosley (standing)

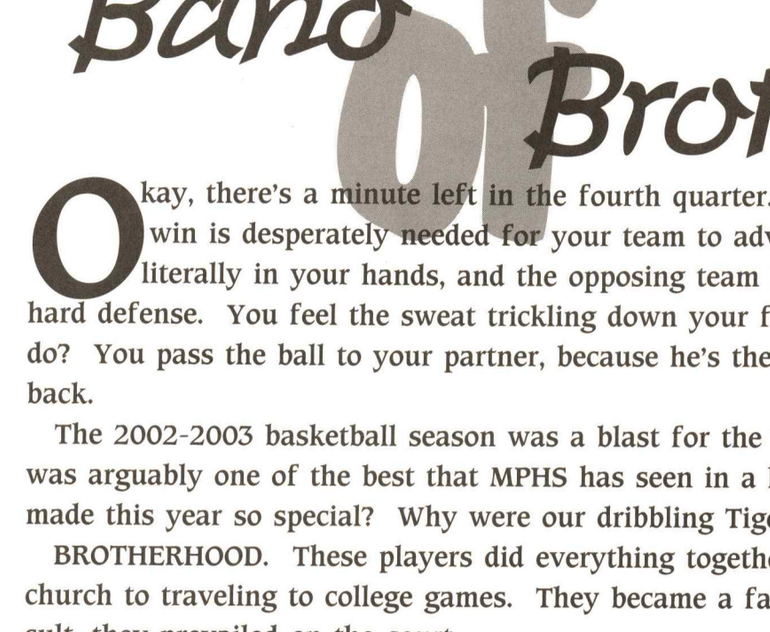
Band of Brothers

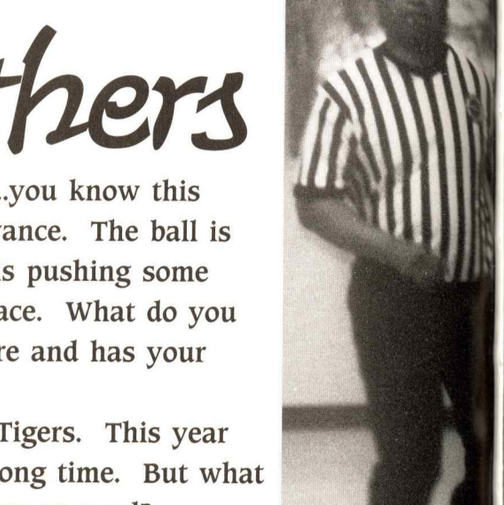
Okay, there's a minute left in the fourth quarter...you know this win is desperately needed for your team to advance. The ball is literally in your hands, and the opposing team is pushing some hard defense. You feel the sweat trickling down your face. What do you do? You pass the ball to your partner, because he's there and has your back.

The 2002-2003 basketball season was a blast for the Tigers. This year was arguably one of the best that MPHS has seen in a long time. But what made this year so special? Why were our dribbling Tigers so good?

BROTHERHOOD. These players did everything together, from going to church to traveling to college games. They became a family, and as a result, they prevailed on the court.

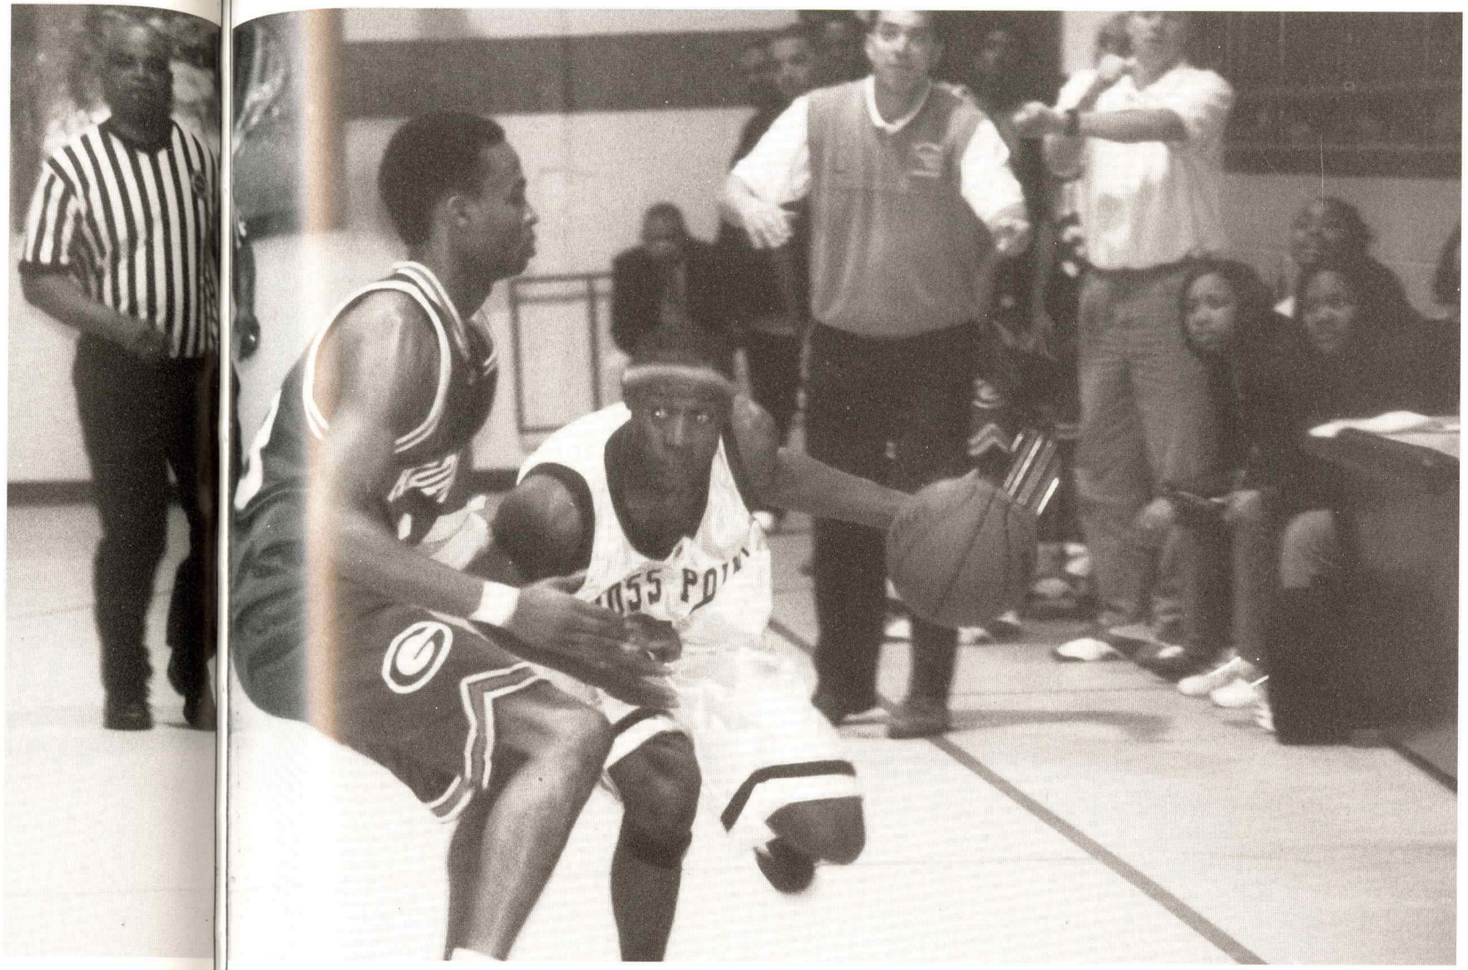
"We basically set and accomplished all of our goals, except obtaining the state title," states Cavin Payton, #33. And that, they did. The Tigers were one game away from competing for the State Championship, but were stopped in their tracks by Vicksburg. Nevertheless, they triumphantly finished the season with a 22-12 record, with everlasting friendships to show for it.



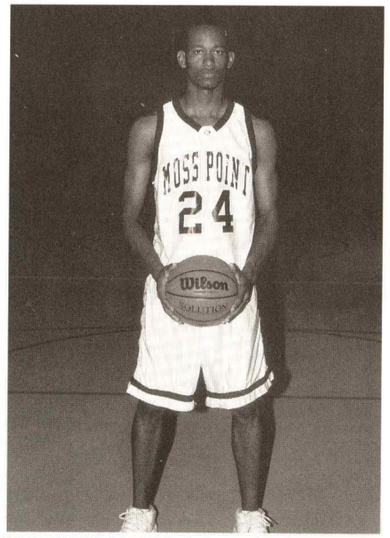


CIRCLE OF SUCCESS (above)- The Tigers link up in preparation for the game ahead of them.

EENY, MEENY, MINY....(left)-Senior Brandon Biggs wonders who he should pass to next.

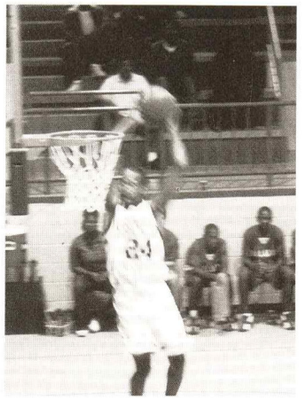


SHAKE ON IT (left)- The team follows tradition by shaking the other team's hands after the game.



SHINING STAR (above)- A transfer student from East Central High School, Kenny Hooks was a great asset to the Tigers this season.

GIANT EXPECTATIONS (right)- Junior Cavin Payton, one of the team's tallest players, averaged about 11points a game.



KING OF DUNK (right)- Kenny Hooks gets major air time, showing Biloxi that he is a force to be reckoned with.

FAKE OUT (below)- Senior and veteran player Robert Lett easily side steps one of Ocean Springs' boys.

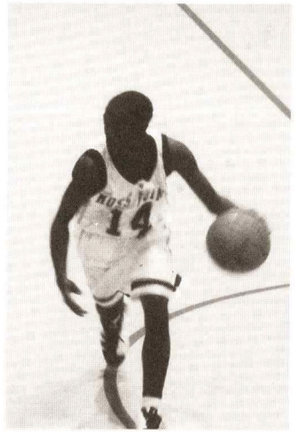
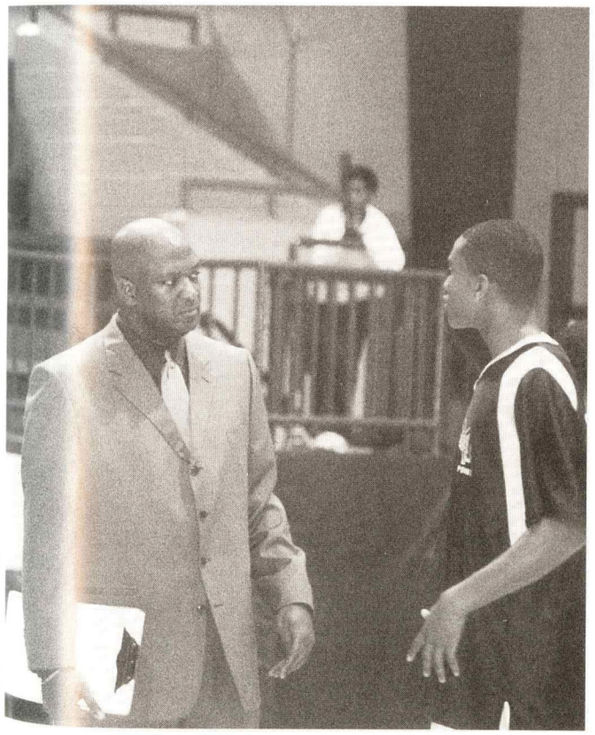
SHORT STUFF (below)- Sophomore Jerry Walley turns his small height into speed and agility when on the court.





LET ME EXPLAIN, COACH...(left)- Coach Brian Brooks has a little chat with freshman David Booker before the game.

PLEASE MAKE IT...(above)- Three of the Tigers encourage the rest of the team while waiting to get into the game.

EYES ON THE PRIZE (right)- Amber Hardy keeps her eyes on the ball to make sure it hits the intended mark.

Girls just wanna have FUN!

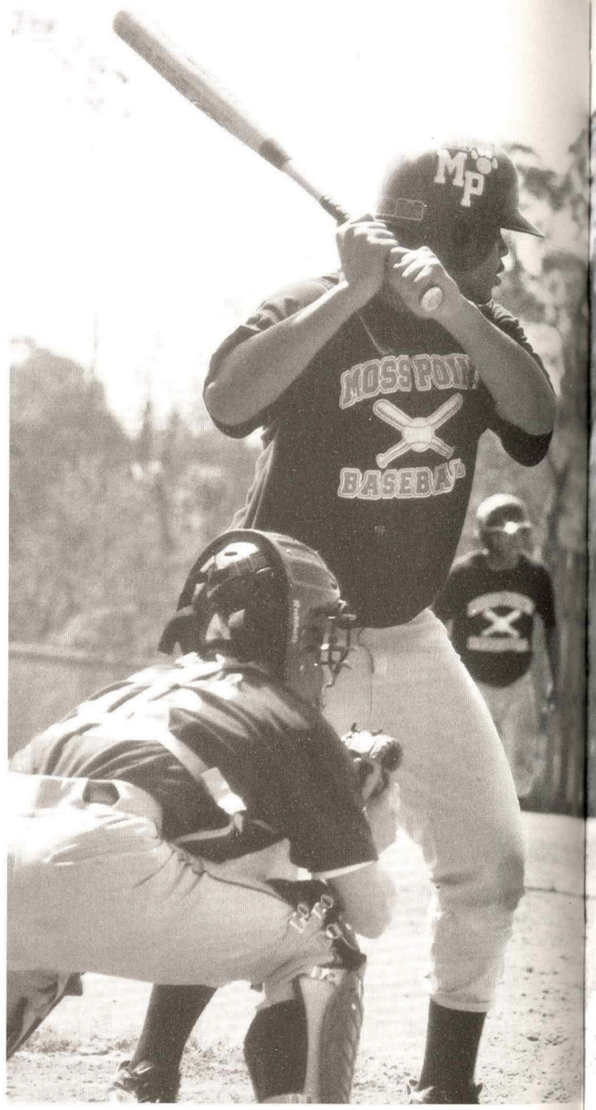
GOING FOR THE HOOP (above)- Sophomore DeMiracle Biggs attempts to shake an Ocean Springs player to reach the goal.
ABOVE THE REST(right)- Junior Sade' Lett rises to the occasion as she easily soars over her opposition to make the shot.

FAST PITCH (right)- Dusty Nelson launches a fast one down the middle.

GROUND BALL (right)- Senior Miles Clark reaches down to scoop up a ground ball.



One Heartbeat

Moss Point High's 2003 baseball team's challenge was to take a handful of raw talented players and mold them into a team.

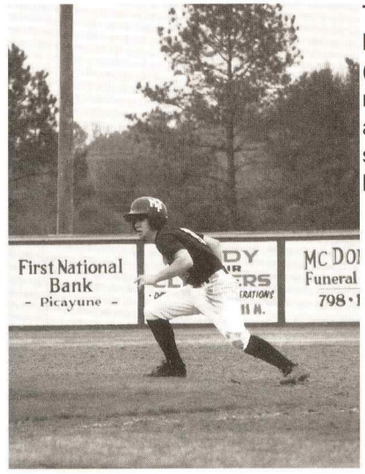
While Coach John Tomes encouraged his team to "put the ball in play" and "make the defense work," most of the team members would admit that wasn't exactly the area that needed improvement. "We had a lot of potential, but we just had to refine our team skills and become one," says Chad Green. And that's exactly what they did.

Team unity finally prevailed in the 2003 season. "We had a slow start but came together to win the needed games," Miles Clark states. The Tigers put differences aside and became a unit. One body. One breath. One heartbeat.

COME ON HOME (above)- A player sluggishly comes in from third base after a home run by his teammate.

HARDEST POSITION ON THE FIELD (above)- Billy McGruder, Moss Point's catcher, says his position is no easy job. "You've got to be focused 100% on the game. You also have to be the dumbest player on the field to volunteer to attempt to catch 90 mph baseballs."

HUDDLE UP (above)- The Tigers gather up to discuss the game and team strategies.



TO RUN OR NOT TO RUN (left)- Tensions rise as a player attempts to steal second base.

little hype,

BIG HEARTS

Although the game of tennis is not the most popular sport at Moss Point High, the students that are involved love it dearly. Anyone who has attended a tennis match has witnessed the effort and passion that goes into the game.

Second-year player Cillora Hicks takes that passion onto the court every day. "We take pride and honor in every match we win, lose, and play. It is a very fun and challenging sport and I encourage everyone to give it a try," states the junior.

Alex Lucas, senior and German exchange student, says that tennis is not only fun, but teaches great personal virtues. "Playing tennis has taught me great patience, and has also helped me realize that you can't win every match, so there's no use in getting angry over losing. Either the person was simply better than you, or you allowed victory to slip through your fingers."

Fast-Paced Success

Moss Point has a history of great track and field teams, and the 2003 carried on the tradition. The sprinting Tigers placed in the top three at almost every track meet.

Consistency wasn't the only attribute to the track team; they also possessed self-confidence and were extremely competent. "Each person was willing to work hard. We started with a very young team, and plenty of new faces, but they all stepped up and became the great athletes that the team as a whole needed them to be," senior Larry Fairley says.

THINK FAR, THINK FAR... (above)- Larry Fairley, a track veteran, has won the silver medal in the discus competition for two years straight.

Tiger Spirit

From learning a new cheer to learning a Regional Competition routine, this year has been a bumpy ride for the cheerleaders. Nevertheless, they have all grown to be a team, not individuals. Instead of criticizing one another, they encourage each other to learn from their mistakes..

"We started out as a squad with not as much experience as years past, but we overcame obstacles with a lot of determination to get the task done," captain (and senior) Shaana Worlds states. "If I had the chance to do it all over again, I most definitely would."

Dear Students and Staff,

Through turbulent times and unfortunate incidents, we editors, along with help of a great staff, were still able to come together and forge a publication for the student body that we dearly hope will meet your expectations. We are, however, sure that we captured the most memorable moments and faces in these few 160 pages.

Coming into this with no experience and no knowledge of the hard work ahead of us, there were, of course, frustrating times. Page deadlines had to be met, required pictures had to be taken and even technical problems like computer trouble occured. We knew we had a responsibility and duty to Moss Point High School and with the encouragment of each other, and a wonderful, dedicated advisor, those duties were fulfilled; the Growler lives on...

Carmen Torres, Editor
J.J. McCowey, Asst. Editor

No longer cubs, they must venture into the wilderness alone. With all of the knowledge they absorbed in the Tiger Den, they are prepared for the long journey ahead. Determined to leave their paw prints on the trails of success, they embark on their journey with confidence, determination and optimism.
